MANY KILLED IN MID-WEST TORNADO

Volstead Act Declared Illegal—Ask Recall of Viceroy—Electrical Workers Still on Strike—Oakland Preacher Convicted—To Have Transcontinental Air Route.

CHICAGO, March 29.—With the dead estimated from 198 to 314, more than 1000 persons injured, hundreds of families cast homeless into the streets and a property loss of many millions of dollars, Sunday's tornadoes, which tore lanes of destruction and death through seven Central Western and Southern states, passed into history today as constituting one of the greatest storm disasters on record in the United States.

Hour by hour the death list grows and when the full toll of the storm is counted it is believed that it will bear the names of at least 200 victims.

VICEROY'S RECALL IS ASKED BY COMMISSION

DELHI, India, March 29.—The special commission appointed by the national congress to inquire into the recent disturbances in the Punjab has published its report. It says that the commission finds Baron Chelmsford, viceroy and governor general of India, incapable of holding his high office and demands his recall.

The report declares that no conspiracy designed to overthrow the British government has been proved.

ELECTRICAL WORKERS REMAIN ON STRIKE

SAN FRANCISCO, March 29.—Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company electrical workers have voted 2 to 1 to continue the coast-wide strike called several weeks ago, it was announced today by T. C. Vickers, representative of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers. The vote was the result of a referendum, the fourth since the strike started, on the question of going back to work. The sentiment of the strikers, he added, was for continuing the strike until their demand for $1 a day increase is met.

OAKLAND PREACHER IS SYNDICALIST

OAKLAND, March 29.—Rev. J. G. Weller, convicted on five counts of being a member of the Communist Labor party, was today sentenced to imprisonment in San Quentin for an indeterminate period of from one to fourteen years

HASHED PHILOSOPHY

A fat woman never has any luck pining away.

A real Don Juan doesn't go round telling about it.

Fighting a losing fight is probably the hardest work.

Nearly every state should have a State Fool Inspector.

Some people are helpless as long as they can get help.

Use a bung-starter on all professional politicians.

None but an idiot contends that the natural is always nice.

Give us some of the harp music and golden streets before death.

When handed a lemon a fellow can't even make toddy of it now.

Meat eaters are the greatest hustlers—they have to be to get the meat.

We'll say that both Peary and Cook should have stayed north.

BURGLARS RANSACK HOME OF D. H. SMITH

Burglars who broke into the house of D. H. Smith, 456 Twenty-first street, yesterday afternoon failed to secure any valuables, according to the statement of Mr. Smith.

The family had been away for the afternoon and the burglary was not discovered until about 5 o'clock in the afternoon. The burglars had evidently entered the front door by using a skeleton key and then had given the house a thorough ransacking, but were unrewarded for their search, as nothing of value, apparently, had been taken.

Chief of Police W. H. Wood and Inspector Dan Cox went to investigate the case and report that they believe that the men are merely hangers-on who are following after the Wortham shows now showing here.

I.O.O.F. Pick Grand Lodge Delegates

The third degree was conferred upon three members at the meeting of the Odd Fellows in Richmond hall last night. Those receiving this degree were J. G. Benner, N. S. Stevens and J. A. Anderson.

The delegates to the grand lodge to be held in San Francisco on May 11 were also appointed last night. Following is a list of the delegates: J. B. Hunt, N. B. Tiller, Frank Rhodes, R. B. Stanton, J. C. Hitchcock and C. Clarenbach.

Among the many Shriners of the city who attended the big ceremonial session of the lodge held in the Oakland Civic Auditorium last Saturday, were: W. T. Helms, Zeb Knott, Dr. C. R. Blake, Dr. E. M. Horner, C. D. Horner, A. B. Innis, H. A. Johnston, B. Schapiro, H. V. Alvarado, Barney Swearington and Ben Malik.

A SMALL SUM WILL SAVE HARBOR

The Present Silting In of the Basin at the Wharf Need Not Be Dredged, But Can Be Pumped Out, and After the Project Is Completed the Government Will Maintain It.

The silting in of the "pocket" basin dredged by the city council in front of Wharf No. 1 need cause no concern had the bonds been voted last November and the inner harbor project completed. With the harbor completed, or even well under way, the federal government will pay all expense of dredging and maintenance.

The "pocket" in front of Wharf No. 1 is not really a part of the inner harbor, but opens from the channel of the harbor project. Dredging tris 800 feet square space is not very expensive, as silt is pumped out at a minimum cost.

The channel of the harbor itself after completed need be dredged no oftener than once in three years, Colonel E. E. Winslow, United States district engineer, has stated, and the cost would be about $15,000, so the government does not look for any considerable amount of silting.

Even at that, though, the training wall should be constructed. The building of the training wall, under the inexpensive plan decided upon by the government engineers, was included in the total cost of the proposed bond issue that the corporations defeated, and the government fund, pledged of half, being $738,000 in all, city and government.

Richmond citizens are beginning to realize what a black eye this city can get by failure to proceed with its harbor work. To have the outside world know that the city is to lose about $1,000,000 worth of work already done, and lose the use of a $260,000 wharf built by taxpayers' coin, will bring Richmond into a contempt that will be about as fatal as far as progress here is concerned as will be the failure to provide shipping facilities and deep water factory sites by finishing the harbor.

Dr. Lewis Is To Address Methodists

Dr. J. H. Lewin of the Wesley Methodist Episcopal church of San Francisco will address the congregation of the Richmond Wesley M. E. church at the special services this evening, taking as his theme "Prayer."

Tonight will be Wesley Matrons' night and the services will be in charge of the Wesley Matrons, of whom Mrs. J. H. Eichar is the leader.

Mrs. W. E. Cunningham, wife of Dr. W. E. Cunningham, reports that her new car has been run 4000 miles since Christmas. Ye gods! She must be running a jitney bus or a taxi business.

ASK PRESIDENT TO ACCEPT THE LODGE AMENDMENTS

WASHINGTON, March 29.—Through a petition signed by a number of the most prominent men and women of the country, President Wilson was appealed to today to accept the Lodge reservations to the treaty of Versailles and to join the League of Nations forthwith, reserving his fight for his own conception of the covenant until later.

The petition was presented by Samuel Colcord of New York. Some of the signers were A. Lawrence Lowell, president of Harvard university; Cardinal Gibbons, Jacob H. Schiff, George W. Wickersham, former attorney general; Augustus Thomas, playwright, and others.

The plan presented to the President was "that by understanding between the President and a sufficient number of the majority and minority senators, we at once accept the inevitable and join the League of Nations upon the basis of what are known as the Lodge reservatins."

The House foreign affairs committee was attempting to reach an agreement upon a resolution declaring the United States to be at peace with Germany. Members of the committee have agreed to report out such a resolution, but have not agreed on its wording.

MUNICIPAL MARKETS ARE ALWAYS FAILURES

While today is set as the time when Berkeley's proposed municipal market is to be made a special order of business before the council, the ordinance which would create such a department of the municipal government is flo nearer framing than it was a week ago.

City Attorney Frank V. Cornish declares that the city's right to establish a market in the ordinary sense of the term is not questioned, but whether or not the municipal funds may be expended for financing the purchase and sale of perishable goods he stated is not so certain.

The above is a current dispatch from Berkeley, and our candid advice to Berkeley, the Housewives League and everybody else is to let the municipal market business severely alone, as it is bum steer and never pans out.

The reason it fails is because the people will not remain loyal to it. We tried the municipal market business out in Richmond, to our sorrow, and that is the way it always pans out.

Richmond established two municipal markets and sold fish, vegetables, fruit, eggs and other products at actual cost plus cost of handling. A very material reduction in cost was made to the people, all right, especially in fish, but in a short time the regular dealers got together and met the city prices, dollar for dollar. Of course, they lost money on that sort of thing, but they were wise, all right, and knew just what they were doing.

The city sold for spot cash and made no deliveries, and just as soon as the dealers met the prices, and gave credit, and delivered the goods in autos, the dear people forsook the city markets and flocked in thousands back to the old dealers, so they could have the goods "charged" and delivered. In ten days both municipal markets were out of business.

And there you are. There is nothing in this paternal government, whatever. Whenever tried it always fizzles.

TRACTION CO. AND COUNCIL WRANGLE

Two Hours Valuable Time Is Taken Up in Discussing Just How Switch on the Avenue at Twentieth Street Shall Be Constructed—Company to Make New Application.

W. R. Alberger, J. P. Potter and Traffic Manager Harris, representing the Oakland Traction Co. appeared before the council last night, as per request of that body. The occasion of their visit was the matter of the proposed switch at Twentieth and Macdonald to relieve the present traffic jam. As matters now stand cars have to take the switch on the southbound track, a condition which delays inbound cars from twenty to forty minutes each evening when workingmen are anxious to get home. According to the company officials, a single switch connecting with the southbound track directly opposed to the one now existing will cost $1000. To cross this track and connect with the inbound track would cost $2000 more. This expenditure the company at this time cannot consider, and offered a counter proposition—after a few tepid remarks by the mayor—whereby they are to change the switch on Standard avenue.

The situation as it now stands is this: The traction company is to request permits to construct a single switch at Twentieth street leading into their yards, and to move the present switch on Standard avenue from its present location to between San Pablo and Castro streets. If this change on Standard avenue is made a dangerous condition will have been eliminated. Again the single switch at Twentieth street may also relieve, to a certain extent, the congestion on the avenue. This request for the above permits will be in the hands of the council next Monday night.

Standard Oil Company granted permission to connect with city sewer in order to drain part of the land now being filled for construction purposes.

Petition for arc light at McBride and Lassen avenue laid over one week.

Chief of Police requests permission to purchase a state auto directory at cost of $30.

Resolution ordering work done on Wall avenue laid over one week.

Application for arc light at S. P. and Twentieth street.

Vacation ordinance laid over one week at request of firemen.

Resolution of intention to change grades on Cypress avenue adopted.

Thirty days' extension of time to complete contract for construction of East Richmond sewer granted to Contractor R. H. Downer.

AMONG THE JOKESMITHS

In an infant school the teacher chose the miracle of the water being turned into wine as the subject of the usual Bible lesson.

In telling the story she occasionally asked a few questions. One of them was:

"When the new wine was brought to the governor of the feast, what did he say?"

A little girl, remembering what she had heard, probably on some festive occasion, called out:

"Here's luck!"

Home Brew

"We had raisin pie for dinner yesterday, and Pa got awful mad."

"What's the matter? Doesn't he like raisin pie?"

Yep, but he told Ma he had bought those raisins for another purpose."

YOUNG GIRL IS ASSAULTED

With her face bruised and bleeding from the blows dealt by a fiend who attacked her in the vicinity of the City Hall last night, Miss Ruth Washburn, aged 17, rushed into the Venus Confectionery, 2233 Macdonald avenue, crying hysterically for help. Her clothing had been badly torn and both her slippers had been lost in the struggle with the brute who assaulted her. Her forehead was swollen and bleeding from a wicked blow of the man's fist, and she was in so nervous a condition that it was almost necessary to hold her in the automobile in which she was taken to her home.

The girl had been on her way to a party and her way led through some of the vacant blocks in the vicinity of the City Hall. While going through here she was attacked and after a terrible fight managed to escape from her assailant and run to the store on Macdonald avenue to call for assistance.

Officers Manke, Caldwell and Cox were sent out on the case but were unable to find any trace of the man and the girl was unable to give any description of her assailant. Chief of Police Wood and his inspectors are hard at work on the case attempting to obtain some clue that will lead to the arrest of the party.

This is only one instance of the dangers of indifference on the part of those in power. Chief Wood has repeatedly asked for the addition of more men to his altogether inadequate night force, which addition, were it made, would eliminate a great deal of the danger which now lurks in the path of the woman or girl who is forced to go around the unfrequented streets after dark.

Rev. A. M. Bahnsen of the Lutheran church here is confined to his bed with an attack of tonsilitis.

STATE HOOVER CLUBS ARE BUSY

Republicans Seem to Be More Active in California to Get Hoover Nominated Than Democrats Are—Many in Richmond Say They Will Vote for Him Irrespective of Party.

Following the filing of the Hoover ticket of delegates with the secretary of state, the Republican Club of California plans during the week to initiate a vigorous campaign over the state to insure the election of the delegates May 4. The central headquarters are in San Francisco.

Ralph P. Merritt, formerly food administrator of this state, is state campaign director. Separate headquarters have been established in Los Angeles for Southern California. A total of 115 Hoover clubs affiliated with the state-wide club during the first ten days of its organization, and it is expected by Manager Merritt that there will be a roll of hundreds of individual clubs by the end of this week.

Warren Gregory, a leading San Francisco attorney, is president of the Hoover Republican Club. The list of delegates, all of whom are prominent in their respective localities, is headed by Charles C. Moore, known throughout the state as president of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition in 1915. The list also includes M. C. Sloss, formerly justice of the supreme court, San Francisco, and Charles C. Chapman, of Fullerton, one of the leading orange growers of the state.

The San Francisco Bulletin yesterday published a straw ballot, which was obtained through the medium of blank ballots printed daily in its columns. Nearly two thousand ballots were clipped by Bulletin readers, filled in, signed and mailed to the political editor. By the straw ballot Herbert C. Hoover received 56 per cent of the total votes cast, which was considerably over twice the number sent in for Senator Hiram Johnson, who ran second in the race. Hoover received 931 out of 1662 votes, with Johnson supporters registering 449.

BOY SHOOTS SELF

MARTINEZ, March 29.—Frank Miller, 16 years old, shot himself seriously in the right shoulder while out hunting near his home at Oakley yesterday afternoon. He is at the Martinez hospital, where it had not yet been determined whether it will be necessary to amputate an arm. Miller was dragging a shotgun when it accidentally discharged. His father heard the shot and the boy's cries and ran to his assistance.

DESPICABLE METHODS

A very prominent man of San Francisco, interested in large affairs and in politics, and who is also a very good personal friend, wrote us yesterday, asking that we get busy boosting the Reyublican game. Our answer may be of interest to the general public, se we are copying it herewith:

Dear Friend:

I am in receipt of your letter, and while I would do most anything in the bounds of reason to please a good friend, such as you are, I cannot subscribe to the sentiment you express. You say: "A campaign should be started now by the newspapers in support of the nominee of the Republican national convention, WHOEVER HE MAY BE."

Right there is where I gig back. This "WHOEVER HE MAY BE" STUFF DON'T GO WITH ME ANY MORE, and I do not believe it is going to go with millions of people all over America.

If the Republican national convention wants the support of the masses of the people, let it nominate a man in whom the people can have respect and confidence, but the time has passed when the people will fall for anything a bunch of professional politicians undertake to force down their throats.

And this is just as true of the Democratic party as of the Republican party. As far as I am concerned, I am a political maverick, running unbranded on the range, and I am going to support and vote for the man, irrespective of partisanism. I don't care a whoop what kind of a brand he wears, as to party, just so he is a sure-nuff MAN, and I believe in this I am echoing the heartfelt sentiment of millions of people.

Today's dispatches announce that the campaign managers for Leonard Wood have already spent upwards of $2,000,000 toward buying the nomination for him, contributed by Frick, Perkins, Schwab and other steel and copper kings. Also that a fortune is being expended by the campaign managers of Gov. Lowden to secure the nomination for him, and others are mentioned who are doing likewise. If this be true, and I believe it is, because I get their propaganda stuff by mail every day and dump it in the waste basket, then these men, aided by trust billionaires, are starting out to first buy the nomination and then BUY THE ELECTION, and I am as much opposed to any such rotten methods as I was with those of Mark Hanna when he raised $16,000,000 among the same crowd for the purpose of buying the election for McKinley, AND DID BUY IT.

Senator Newberry of Michigan has just been sentenced to the penitentiary (and I hope he lands right there, where he belongs) for this very sort of thing, and some of these would-be presidential nominees are in the same class.

I believe in a campaign of educational propaganda, as that is necessary, and for a legitimate expense to cover it, but buying up state delegations and the pothouse politicians who "fix" state delegations is altogether another thing.

And speaking of expense, there is another thing I object to strenuously, and that is for all these wallopers to be constantly and everlastingly trying to work the editors and newspapers out of their propaganda publicity, which is legitimate, and spending millions among politicians for corruption, which is not legitimate.

Every day of my life I get columns and yards, pecks and bushels of reading matter to publish, as do thousands of other editors, extolling the virtues of these presidential aspirants to the skies, and all of it marked "NEWS." There is no news about it; it is advertising to boost a game out of which the boosters expect to make millions and are already drawing down considerable. I pay a garbage man $1 a week to haul it away, and am already out about $20 on that.

I will support any good man for president, no matter by whom nominated, but I will not support the nominee of any party "WHOEVER HE MAY BE," and think anybody who does that is foolish in the head.

The Republican party has the chance of its life right now to get back into power, but it can't do it by those old-time, broken-down Mark Hanna methods. And neither can any other party. I for one refuse to believe that the American people have sunk so low as to be for sale to the highest bidder.

Wishing you every personal success, and with kindest regards,

Cordially,
F. J. HULANISKI.

THINKOGRAPHS

A demagogue is a loud talker who belongs to the opposition party.

If a boy isn't rough on clothes, his parents should consult a physician.

Experience also teaches a number of things you shouldn't know.

If you want to abuse people and get paid for it, become an evangelist.

With the price of collars and shaves both advanced, beards may again become popular.

Except at election time it doesn't make much difference to the rank and file who is elected.

It is pretty hard for a man who has a racing automobile not to make a fool of himself.

It must have been pretty soft when there were only ten commandments.

Nearly every man believes he is a good judge of coffee and human nature.

Some men who are going to the dogs will prove an awful shock to the dogs.

A busy man may envy loafers, but he does not want to be bothered by them.

Job gets a lot of credit for patience in view of the fact that he never was told that the line was busy.

And speaking of personal liberty in connection with whisky, why is it that Uncle Sam don't figure it that way with the Indians?

Most men are patient with everything except their wives, who do the most for them.

This is such a good country to live in, and filled with such a whole-souled lot of people, that a fellow can be glad he is alive every day, and not half try.

After a man begins to get older, life is made more difficult by the fact that people think he is old enough to know better.

It's what's inside your battery that makes it live long or wear out quickly.

Inferior insulation wears out before the plates do, and re-insulation is necessary.

Threaded Rubber Insulation greatly postpones and almost always entirely eliminates the need of re-insulation; makes a battery last much longer under equal conditions, and reduces the liability to any other kind of repairs.

It's the one biggest battery improvement in ten years—demonstrated now by four years of use. You can't afford not to know about it, for some day you'll need a new battery.

Bobby Engelking Praised As Actor

We did not like to lay claim that our own grandson was among the very best actors at the high school circus, as that would not be modest, but everybody else keeps telling us so, so it must be true.

"Bobby" Ingelking is the smallest lad in high school, and a mighty bright boy, if we do say it. He took the part of a dummy at a ventriloquist act during the show, and did it so well that the big crowd all thought it was a real dummy. He was painted up to look like a little wooden man with a rag body, and when the ventriloquist brought him in slung under one arm like any rag baby would be, and propped him up in a sitting posture, everybody fell for it. Then when the "dummy" answered questions in a high squeaky voice the "ventriloquist" got much credit for being able to throw his voice fine.

But at the end, when Bobby slid down and walked off, a roar went up that could be heard for blocks.

WAR FILM SHOWING AT RICHMOND TODAY

The ruin which the war brought to those who betrayed the land of their adoption by giving aid and support to the Menace is vividly shown in "Whom the Gods Would Destroy," the sensational photoplay, which will be shown at the Richmond theater today.

Adolph Claw is a rich New Yorker, who has made his money in America, but who, for sentimental reasons, and because of some strange leaning toward imperialism, secretly works for the Menace. He directs the scheme of inducing Jack Randall, a young American inventor of explosives, to enter a foreign university.

He even is willing that his daughter Elsa shall be used as an aid in this and other projects. When the Menace is beaten, he bitterly denounces the agent who led him to do these things. But then it is too late, for he has been ruined and his daughter, killed by the mighty guns of the land to which she and her father should have been true.

The role of Jack Randall, the inventor, is played by Jack Mulhall, that of Adolph Claw by Charles W. French, and that of Elsa, the daughter, by Kathryn Adams.

NEW LABOR PARTY DECLARES PRINCIPLES

That not only manual laborers, but brain workers as well, should be given a chance to demand the worth of their labor is the note sounded by the Labor party, the San Francisco section of which met in San Francisco Sunday and made a declaration of principles. Several Contra Costa county delegates were present at the convention.

Below follow some interesting extracts from the declaration of principles adopted:

Labor is the primary and just basis of political responsibility and power. It is not merely the right, but the duty of the workers by hand or brain to become a political party.

The Labor party is destined to usher in the new day of freedom in the United States—freedom from the grind of poverty; freedom from the ownership of government by big business; freedom from the slave-driving of workers by profiteers, and freedom of the men and women who buy food and clothing and pay rent from exploitation at the hands of the money kings.

It is a party of organized workers and unorganized workers. Clerks, housewives, newspapermen, farmers, school teachers and storekeepers are among those eligible to membership and welcome within its range. Such heads of organizations and business concerns as are not exploiters or profiteers may belong to it. There is no place in the party for those who are not workers. There is room within it for all who perform service to society.

In this country the triumph of those who perform service to the community can and must be achieved peacefully by the workers uniting and marching in unbroken phalanx to the ballot boxes. It is the mission of the Labor party to bring this to pass.

The declaration closes with demands for more nationally owned resources, more democratic educational systems and less power for court officials.

Plans for a successful drive in the interest of the Near East Relief Fund are being made here by the local leaders of the movement. Definite arrangements and assignments of work have not yet been made, but the work is rapidly being organized and the machinery of the drive will soon be in motion.

Mrs. W. E. Cunningham, who is leader of the Richmond women who are to carry on the drive, has already selected some of the members of her committee. Those already selected are: Mrs. H. A. Stiver, Mrs. A. B. Ledgerwood, Mrs. Charles Renwick, Mrs. Percy Neale and Mrs. Mae Cunningham.

Several prominent men about the city have been selected to work on the drive, though their exact line of work has not yet been mapped out for them. Among the men selected already are: Mayor James Long, Harry Marcus of The Big Store, Mr. Beatty, president of the Building Trades Council.

Rev. A. M. Bahnsen is publicity manager for the drive in this city.

The address made Sunday night before the congregation of the Wesley Methodist church by Dr. Dilly of the First Methodist church of Alameda met with very favorable comment from the members of the church, states Rev. Paul Little, pastor of the Wesley Methodist church.

CERTAIN-TEED PLANT WILL BE ENLARGED

The Certain-teed Corporation's plant of this city is to be enlarged by the addition of a new paint factory, work upon which will begin next week, according to the announcement made by S. C. Straub, superintendent of the local plant. The contract has been let to the Wimer Construction Company of St. Louis, which firm built the present plant. Work on the new addition will start within the next week.

Superintendent Straub stated yesterday that the new units to the plant would include a three-story brick paint factory and a one-story warehouse. The machinery, equipment and motors for the paint factory have already been purchased, according to Straub, and the entire unit will be pushed to completion as fast as possible.

The cost of the new factory was not available at the plant offices, but estimates by local contractors place the probable cost of the buildings and equipment at between $125,000 and $150,000. This will make it one of the largest building enterprises of the year.

When finished, which will be within three or four months, the plant will be devoted to the manufacture of a complete line of the Certain-teed Corporation paints, including inside and outside house paints, enamels and other lines for supplying the Pacific Coast district and southern and Oriental trade. The factory will have an initial working force of from seventy to eighty men.

DAVIS CASE DISMISSED

PROMISES ALIMONY

BERKELEY HOLD-UP

Wortham Shows Start Tonight

To the delight of small boys—and some big ones, too—there is a show in town again. The big Clarence A. Wortham Shows, which are to be the feature of the American Legion carnival, arrived in the city yesterday and parked their entire outfit on the Santa Fe field.

The company brings several new and novel amusements which have just been added previous to the arrival of the company on the Pacific Coast. When the shows left El Paso, Texas, the last stop before reaching the coast, ten new cars were required to transport the additional equipment which was added in Texas. At this time was added the thrilling attraction "Over the Falls," the world's most sensational ride. This affair gives all the thrill of riding over a cataract, but does away with the water. A model of the Panama canal will be shown to carnival visitors, in which they will be able to see exactly how vessels pass through the world's greatest waterway. The model is built to a scale and boats are run through the channel in the same manner in which they pass through the real Panama canal.

A big free war exhibit, showing 3000 or more relics from the European battlefields, will be among the many attractions of the shows. These relics range from models of trenches to bits of shrapnel taken from the wounds of American soldiers who "did their bit" to give the final blow to the Hun plan of world empire. In all there are twenty big shows in the carnival, not including the whip, the frolic, the merry-go-round and the ferris wheel.

This is the first visit of the Wortham shows to this part of California. The opening of the shows in this city will mark the sixty-four week of their season. The show started on the road from Los Angeles on January 20, 1919, and after touring the Great Lakes section and other parts of the Middle West, returned to California, and are now touring Northern California for the first time. Ever since their arrival in California they have been showing under the auspices of the American Legion.

The engagement of the Wortham shows in Richmond begins tonight and ends Saturday night at 12 o'clock. They promise to give one of the greatest attractions of the sort ever seen in Richmond, as they are the largest carnival outfit in the world, occupying the same place in the carnival field as Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey do in the circus realm.

Train Kills Two Near Martinez

MARTINEZ, March 29.—Local authorities have started a statewide search for relatives of William O'Brien, foreman of the Associated Oil Company's Port Costa plant, who, with E. D. McDermott, a laborer, was killed last night when an electric speeder on which they were riding switched on to the main track and crashed into the oncoming Los Angeles Limited.

The accident occurred near the General Chemical Company's buildings at Nicoll.

Street Car Co. To Insure Its Men

The local street car company announces in its "Key System News" that commencing with April 1 it will give a free life insurance to all its employees who have been in its employ six months or more. The amounts in insurance range from $150 to $1000, according to the length of time the employee has been with the company and the number of dependents he has to provide for.

This is quite a decent move on the part of the company, and The News is glad to be able to chronicle something to its credit. All employees are included if under 50 years of age and whose term of service is six months or more. Medical examination will be free.

Rev. Little Attends Preachers Meeting

Rev. Paul Little attended the meeting of the Methodist preachers held in San Francisco yesterday. Dr. Dillon Bronson of Boston, who is on his way to the Orient to do missionary work in the interests of the Methodist church, addressed the meeting on topics of importance in the church work field. Bishop N. C. Harris, another well known missionary, also spoke to the gathering. After the meeting a banquet was given at the Ramona hotel in honor of the guests who are departing for the Far East.

Write 100 Words And Make $5.00

The News will pay $5 for the best article of about 100 words on "Why Richmond's Harbor Work Should Continue," written by a woman, and $5 for another one written by any boy or girl of school age.

All articles will be published, and to the best will be given the rewards. Write only on one side of the paper and have the copy in by the first of April. The best way to get inspiration for such an article is to climb one of the Point Richmond hills and look out over the harbor and the work that has been done and note the work that is yet unfinished and hindering the project and the growth and prosperity of Richmond.
